

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

University of Bologna, Department of Juridical Sciences Ravenna Campus

presents

5th edition of the Summer School on transnational litigation

Cross-border litigation and international arbitration

17-22 July 2023

Where will it take place?

The venue where the lectures will take place is Via Oberdan 1/2, Ravenna (Italy).

Is online participation possible?

Yes, the lectures will be held in a blended way:
both in person and online.

How much is the registration fee?

Registration is possible upon the payment of a fee, whose amount is €250,00.

How to register?

Follow the instructions available at <https://site.unibo.it/transnational-litigation/en/fees-and-forms>

Which is the registration deadline?

It is possible to register until 6 July 2023.

The Ravenna Bar Association will grant 20 formative credits to Italian lawyers

What is it about?

This year's program looks at cross-border litigation from a wider perspective, embracing for the first time also international arbitration.

Who is it for?

The Summer School is aimed at law students,
as well as law graduates and law practitioners, who would like to obtain a specialised knowledge in the increasingly relevant area of transnational civil law and to come into direct contact with experts in such a field.

Who are the lecturers?

The lecturers who compose the Faculty of the Summer School are renowned scholars and legal practitioners from different jurisdictions, with very diverse professional backgrounds.

Which is the program?

The program is available at <https://site.unibo.it/transnational-litigation/en/program>

 @SummerSchoolTransnationalLitigation

 @unibo_transnationallitigation

 Ravenna Summer School on Transnational Litigation - University of Bologna

Info: micheleangelo.lupoi@unibo.it